Anti ragging guidelines

Ragging includes individual or collective acts or practices that involve physical assault or threat or use of physical force, which violate the status, dignity, and honor of any student. Ragging is strictly prohibited in the college. Strict action is taken against any individual or group who is involved in such acts.

The college strictly follows the guidelines on ragging issued by the Honorable Supreme Court of India.

UGC Regulations on curbing the menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009

Ragging is a criminal offense and UGC has framed regulations on curbing the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions in order to prohibit, prevent and eliminate the scourge of ragging. In pursuance to the Judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India dated 08.05.2009 in Civil Appeal No. 887/2009, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (g) of sub-section (1) of section 26 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956, the UGC notified "Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009". These regulations are mandatory for all universities/ institutions.

Hence keeping the above guidelines at priority, the members of the committee is authorized to the necessary measures.

Administrative action in the event of Ragging:

1. The punishment to be meted out to the persons indulged in ragging has to be exemplary and justifiability harsh to act as a deterrent against recurrence of such incidents. The students who are found to be indulged in ragging should be debarred from taking admission in any technical institution in India.

2. Every single incidence of ragging a First Information Report (FIR) must be filed without exception by the institutional authorities with the local police authorities.

3. Depending upon the nature and gravity of the offence as established by the Anti Ragging Committee of the institution, the possible punishments for those who found guilty of ragging at the institution level shall be any one or any combination of the following

- a. Cancellation of admission
- b. Suspension from attending classes
- c. Withholding/withdrawing scholarship/fellowship and other benefits
- d. Debarring from appearing in any test/examination or other evaluation process
- e. Withholding results.
- f. Debarring from representing the institution in any regional, national or international meet, tournament, youth festival, etc
- g. Rustication from the institution for period ranging from 1 to 4 semesters
- h. Expulsion from the institution and consequent debarring from admission to any other institution
- i. Fine of Rupees 25,000/-
- j. Collective punishment when the persons committing or abetting the crime of ragging are not identified, the institution shall resort to collective punishment as a deterrent to ensure community pressure on the potential raggars

4. The institutional authority shall intimate the incidents of ragging occurred in their premises along with actions taken to the Council immediately after occurrence of such incident and inform the status of the case from time to time

5. Courts should make an effort to ensure that cases involving ragging are taken up on priority basis to send the correct message that ragging is not only to be discouraged but also to be dealt with sternness.

SREE SIDDAGANGA COLLEGE OF ARTS, SCIENCE AND COMMERCE FOR WOMEN

REPORT ON AWARENESS PROGRAMME BY ANTI-RAGGING CELL IN ASSOCIATION WITH IQAC

Ragging involves abuse, humiliation or harassment of new entrants or junior students by the senior students. It often takes a malignant form where the new comers may be subjected to psychological or physical torture. Ragging is a punishable crime.

In this view, to create awareness among the students about the ill effects of ragging and its legal implications, the anti ragging cell in association with IQAC had arranged an awareness programme on 10/08/2023, Thursday at 10.30 AM at Akkamahadevi seminar hall. 95 students, all the members of anti ragging cell and the teaching staff of the college were participated.

To address the students about ragging and sexual harassment, Dr.Lokeshbabu, Director of Sneha Manovikasa Kendra Tumkur was invited. The resource person addressed the students in a very lively yet effective manner. He threw light on how ragging can happen, what are its types, possible ill effects of ragging, what legal protection can a students get when he/she exposed to such conditions, how to balance both physical and mental health. Students were also allowed to ask questions and clarify their doubts in the interaction session with the resource person. Students gave positive feedback about the programme.
