Report on Parents Feedback 2024-25

Parents are one of the most important stake holders in the educational process. Their feedback helps the institution understand the effectiveness of academic delivery, student support system, discipline and overall campus environment. The college collected feedback from parents to assess their level of satisfaction and gather suggestions for improvement.

The parents feedback reflects confidence in the college's commitment towards academic excellence and student welfare. The institution remains dedicated to maintaining strong communication with parents and using their feedback for continuous improvement.
