Report on Parents Feedback 2025-26

Parents expressed satisfaction with the quality of teaching, decliplined campus environment and the care taken by the institution for student welfare. Few valuable suggestions were received from parents, including the need for more regular parent-teacher meetings, timely updates on students performance and additiona career guidance and placement support.

The parents feedback relects confidence in the college's commitment towards academic excellence and student welfare. The institution remains dedicated to maintaining strong communication with parents and using their feedback for continuous improvement.
