Report on Essay Writing Competition on the Occasion of the Birth Anniversary of William Shakespeare and Christopher Marlowe

The Department of English, with the suggestion of IQAC, organized an Essay Writing Competition on the occasion of the Birth Anniversary of William Shakespeare and Christopher Marlowe on 23rd April 2026 in Room No. 11 for the B.A. students of SSCASCW, Tumakuru.

The program was conducted to commemorate the birth anniversaries of William Shakespeare and Christopher Marlowe, two of the most celebrated playwrights and poets of the Elizabethan Age. The competition aimed to encourage students to enhance their writing skills, literary appreciation, and critical thinking abilities.

A good number of B.A. students actively participated in the competition. The essay topic for the competition was "How William Shakespeare Reshaped English Literature." Students expressed their ideas creatively and demonstrated their understanding of Shakespeare's literary contributions, innovative use of language, characterization, and lasting influence on English literature through their essays. The competition provided an excellent platform for students to improve their writing skills and deepen their knowledge of Shakespearean and Elizabethan literature. The event was educational, informative, and successful in fostering literary interest among the participants.
